

Fan Zhang

Graphic Design and Multimedia Specialist

Fan Zhang is a graphic design and multimedia specialist at the Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce (CEW). He focuses on creating innovative and intuitive visual experiences to enhance CEW's digital presence via infographics, publications, videos, and social media graphics. He also manages CEW's website, conceptualizes dynamic data visualizations, and creates digital tools, including statistical graphs and interactive charts.

Fan holds a master's degree in digital communication and interaction design from the University of Miami. Prior to joining CEW, Fan was a graphic designer and web developer at FlexShopper, LLC. While at FlexShopper, he was involved in designing and implementing intuitive user interfaces for different digital platforms.
