Senior Editor/Writer and Workforce Specialist

Gayle Cinquegrani is Senior Editor/Writer and Workforce Specialist at the Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce.

Gayle began her career as a lawyer but soon switched to journalism. She spent many years at Bloomberg BNA, specializing in employment issues for Daily Labor Report. She tracked Labor Department initiatives, analyzed court decisions, and reported on human resources trends. Her articles on job training and apprenticeships sparked her interest in the relationship between education and occupational advancement.

Gayle has a BA in political science from Johns Hopkins University, a JD from the University of Maryland Law School, and an MS from Columbia University's Journalism School.
